Research Talk

Agentic AI for Quantitative Research: Practical Guidance on Deliberate Use

Emily Johnson, PhD

Assistant Professor

Danish Center for Health Economics, University of Southern Denmark

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2026

3PM–4:20PM ET

LOCATION

Winslow Auditorium

ABOUT THE EVENT

How can we use agentic AI tools to improve the quality and efficiency of research work while keeping the researcher in control? In this talk I'll present a case study of how I use agentic tools for my research and how to benefit from these tools without sacrificing ownership and understanding of the work.
