ABOUT THE EVENT

Join Jenna Wiens, PhD, Professor of Computer Science and Engineering at the University of Michigan, for a conversation about building a career at the intersection of machine learning and healthcare. Dr. Wiens leads the Machine Learning for Data-Driven Decisions research group, working with clinicians to develop methods that support clinical decision-making. The session will begin with reflections on her career journey, followed by a moderated conversation and audience Q&A. Undergraduate and graduate students, postdocs, and early-career researchers in data science, computer science, statistics, and related fields are encouraged to attend and bring their questions.
